Major Accomplishments

Lived a simple life; met Charles Xavier in Year 17 but formed no bond

Enrolled at Oxford at 16, became a biology professor at 20, founded Muir Research Institute at 31

Identified the X-gene in Year 36; developed a cure for the mutant condition

Established the Xavier School for Gifted Children; birthed the X-Men (First Class, Giant-Size, etc.)

Founded the isolated mutant nation-state of Faraway

Lived 1,000 years into the future; discovered the truth of post-human ascension

Systematically eradicated the Trask bloodline over a decade to prevent Sentinels

Conquered America and established the House of M mutant empire

Woke Apocalypse; founded the mutant remnants to war against the Man-Machine Supremacy

Established the sovereign nation of Krakoa; developed resurrection protocols via 'The Five'

Conflict or Faction

Lived as a human; unaware of mutant identity until death

Sought to understand her nature; set out to meet Xavier after he outed himself

Sought a cure; viewed mutation as a disease to be eradicated

Aligned with Xavier's dream of peaceful coexistence

Aggressive isolationism; radicalized Xavier early by showing him her past lives

Attempted to outlast humanity; held in a post-human preserve

Proactive assassination/militant radicalism

Magneto's crusade for mutant dominance

Apocalypse's survival of the fittest; war against Nimrod

Krakoan Age; unified mutant front (allies with former enemies like Sinister and Apocalypse)

Year 100+

Ongoing (faked death in Year 49/50)

Cause of Death

Congestive heart failure

Plane crash while traveling to the United States

Burned alive by Pyro during an attack by the Brotherhood of Evil Mutants

Sentinel attack

Died during a genocide after Boliver Trask's Sentinels breached Faraway

Killed by Wolverine at her request to reset the timeline

Sentinel attack (Sentinels rose despite the death of the Trasks)

Failed prison escape during the War of M

Killed by Wolverine in a stasis pod after receiving data on Nimrod's origin

Faked death using a Shi'ar golem to hide her existence from the world

Legacy and Impact

Discovered her power of reincarnation upon death, setting the stage for future interventions

Confirmed Xavier's role as a catalyst for mutant awareness

Warned by Destiny that she has limited lives (10-11) and will be stopped if she tries to cure mutants again

Realized Destiny was right: humans will always seek to exterminate mutants regardless of peaceful intent

Determined that isolation was insufficient to stop the human machine response

Learned that post-humans win by merging with the Phalanx; took this knowledge to the past

Discovered that AI is an inevitability of human evolution, not just the product of one man

Saw that Magneto's path of global conquest also leads to failure and war

Secured the critical date of Nimrod's activation to prevent it in the next life

The final attempt to ensure mutant survival by breaking all the rules and uniting all mutants
